

DENISE STALLCUP

Safety Specialist and Quality Control

25 Years of Experience

Education

Denise holds a Master's Degree in Writing from Warren Wilson College. Her B.A. is in Literature and Speech from the University of Texas.

Summary of Abilities

Denise has twenty-five years of experience as a writer and editor for corporate and individual clients, providing writing, editing, marketing, and document quality control. She has five years of experience with Soteria as a safety specialist, working with safety and security reports and data.

Areas of Expertise

- Document Quality Control
- Editing of Safety Reports and Manuals
- Management of Safety and Security Data
- Proposal Management
- Technical Writing

Selected Current & Recent Projects

Denise is managing or managed the Technical Writing and Quality Control for Soteria on the following projects, reviewing and editing Preliminary Hazard Analysis, Systems Integration Testing Project Plans, Threat and Vulnerability Assessments, and other safety documents ensuring system safety.

- LAX Automatic People Mover Project, Los Angeles, California
- LA Metro Portal Widening and Turnback Facility, Los Angeles, California
- Sound Transit Northgate, East

Link, Lynwood Link, and Federal Way Extension Projects, Seattle, Washington

- West Valley Connector Bus Rapid Transfer, Los Angeles, California

Employment

- The Workforce Group, Baton Rouge, Louisiana
- Zachry Group, San Antonio, Texas
- University of Texas Health Science Center, San Antonio, Texas

