

SOTERIA CO LLC

MARICRIS SAKER

Safety and Security Specialist

8 Years of Experience

Education

Maricris has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature from UCLA.

Summary of Abilities

Mari has eight years of professional experience in transit safety and security certification, updating and maintaining certification checklists on multiple projects. Additionally, she has a background in content creation, media writing, and corporate writing. She has strong organizational skills and can problem-solve using creative solutions.

Areas of Expertise

- Safety Security Certification
- Safety Data Management

- Media Writing
- Content Creation
- Adobe/Lightroom
- Google Drive Suite
- Bluebeam

Selected Current & Recent Projects

Maricris' experience in safety checklist support and document control includes:

- Identification and organization of referenced drawings and specifications for Design Verification Checklists
- Document updates in support of Risk Analysis Verification
- Updates to and organization of Construction Checklists based on the Design Checklist review
- Tracking and organizing a system compliance verification matrix to support review and updates
- Tracking and updating preliminary and verified items for final safety submittal lists
- Organizing references for Vehicle Design Conformance Checklists
- Downloading and distributing reports to the safety team
- Organizing and reviewing verification documents for Traction Power, Communications, and Guideway Design Conformance Checklists

She has applied her experience and expertise on a number of relevant recent projects, including:

- Valley Metro South-Central Extension, Phoenix, Arizona
- LAX Automated People Mover Project, Los Angeles, California
- Metro-Crenshaw/LAX Transit Corridor Project, Los Angeles, California
- Edmonton Valley Line LRT Project, Alberta, Canada
- Redlands Passenger Rail Project, San Bernardino, California

Employment

- Snap, Inc.

